RIDGE RUNNER 2002
"LONGRIDER"
MCLAREN VALE SHIRAZ

The vineyards of McLaren Vale are world-renowned for wines of elegance, depth and complexity. This Shiraz was produced from the hillside "Jones Block" of the Paxton Vineyard, one of the region's most respected properties. Warm days and cool nights contributed to its development, and selective barrel aging enhanced its character. This Aussie red will continue to benefit from further cellaring, and was crafted to be enjoyed with good food and great company.

California's Surprising 2004 Cabernets: 20 to Watch Exciting New Cabernet Labels

By MaryAnn Worobiec

From Wine Spectator magazine, November 15, 2007 issue

Nearly 100 new Cabernet bottlings have appeared in California over the past year-and most of them are from Napa Valley. The 20 producers profiled here stood out in recent tastings. They represent the efforts of a diverse group of winemakers: world-renowned vintners, hobbyists, landowners, a vineyard manager and a well-known wine retailer. Some own vineyards and/or a winery, some do not, but each has assembled a passionate and committed Cabernet team. And there's no sign of the boom of new producers slowing-there are dozens more new labels on the horizon, scheduled to release their first wines over the next couple years.

ANTICA NAPA VALLEY

Piero Antinori, of the famed Tuscan winemaking family, first became involved in Napa Valley in the late 1980s, when he invested in what would become Atlas Peak Vineyards. Today, Antinori leases 500 acres of vineyards to the Atlas Peak venture (a contract that is up in November 2008, at which time Antinori will take over management of those vineyards once again), and with Washington's Ste. Michelle Wine Estates recently purchased Stag's Leap Wine Cellars. Antica is short for "Antinori California." Its debut wine is a Cabernet Sauvignon made from grapes grown in the Townsend Vineyard, a 24-acre Antinori-owned property adjacent to the current Atlas Peak vineyard.

BOUNTY HUNTER

Mark Pope established the Bounty Hunter Rare Wine & Provisions catalog in 1994, offering sought-after California wines to wine lovers across the country. These days he also operates a popular wine bar and bistro in downtown Napa. In 1999, Pope started to experiment with purchasing bulk wine to bottle for his catalog, then made the switch to producing fine wine beginning with the 2003 vintage. "I'm fortunate to get to taste about 5,000 wines a year. I have a good sense of what customers want," says Pope. The Justice Series is a trio of Cabernet-based wines that winemaker Marco DiGuilio sees as representing various expressions of that grape: Blind Justice is 100 percent Cabernet Sauvignon; Poetic Justice a Bordeaux-inspired blend; and Frontier Justice a blend that will vary each year, with the '04 version a mix of Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc.

BRANDLIN

Cuavaison is perhaps best known for producing Carneros Chardonnay, but in 1998, the winery, which is owned by the Swiss-based Schmidheiny family, purchased a historic 170-acre ranch on Mount Veeder founded by the Brandlin family in 1926. (Chester Brandlin, now in his eighties, still lives on the property.) The vineyard is so good, says winemaker Steve Rogstad, that the decision was made to bottle its fruit -under this separate label. "The site produces very fragrant, solid, tannic-structured and muscular wines," he says, adding that there is a good natural acidity in the wine.

BOUNTY HUNTER 2004 Poetic Justice Beckstoffer Vineyard Napa Valley - $100

James Laube

Score 94 - Wine Spectator

Smooth, rich and flavorful, with layers of complexity built around ripe plum, black cherry and wild berry fruit that's supple and polished. The long, persistent finish remains elegant and keeps the focus on the fruit. Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Malbec. Drink now through 2014. 100 cases made. —J. L.

GREAT WHITESSimply Delicious

'06 CONUNDRUM • CALIFORNIA. Consistently among our best-selling white wines, this offering from the family that owns Caymus Vineyards is always a crowd pleaser. Melon, orange and banana flavors with just enough residual sugar to fatten up the mid-palate. It's equally at home as companion to a fiery Thai curry or at a tailgate party, and it likes food, but doesn't need it. Pour, sip, repeat!

1WCAY06OW3.....$24.95 btl. $22.45 btl./mixed case

'05 DOMAINE DE GRANDMAISON • PESSAC-LÉOGNAN. You're familiar with Château Carbonnieux, one of Bordeaux's top whites? This property is right next door! A blend of Sauvignon Blanc, Sémillon and Sauvignon Gris, their '05 oozes class and distinction. Stone fruits, green apple and a laser beam of minerals and acidity separate this from the herd and make for a very civilized glass of wine. It's also a steal given its impeccable pedigree. Fantastic!

1WDGR05IW3 $23.95 btl. $21.55 btl./mixed case

'05 FORTRESS "MUSQUÉ CLONE" SAUVIGNON BLANC • LAKE COUNTY. With major players from Napa and beyond investing in Lake County vineyards, it's a good indication that it's worth a look. This generously fruited Sauv Blanc is a prime example, serving up Kiwi-style tropical fruit a lot closer to home (as the label notes, "grass is for cows"). Mango and peach notes with a great mouthfeel and nary a hint of shrillness. The perfect starter for your next dinner party.

1WFOR05SB3.....$17.95 btl. $16.15 btl./mixed case

'05 JOSMEYER "LE DRAGON"RIESLING • ALSACE. The magic of 2005 in Alsace is plainly evident in the Dragon. This 60-year old vineyard borders the Grand Cru Brand property, but is actually much warmer, resulting in riper, fleshier wines. Fermented dry, this crystalline Riesling speaks of Meyer lemons, nectarines and minerals. Lush and nervy at once, it's easy to see why Josmeyer regularly ranks at the top of the class. A+

1WJOS05IW3D.....$39.95 btl. $35.95 btl./mixed case

'06 LANCASTER ESTATE SAUVIGNON BLANC • ALEXANDER VALLEY. A Bounty Hunter catalog exclusive! This lithe white combines just the right balance of stainless steel intensity and mid-palate roundness through just a touch of barrel fermentation. Parked in the camp of grapefruit and cantaloupe, it is a rare gem indeed with a scant 450 cases produced (and, alas, they keep most of it for themselves) Get down with the program before our meager supply disappears.

1WLAN06SB3.....$23.95 btl. $21.55 btl./mixed case

'06 ROBERT SINSKEY "ABRAXIS" • CARNEROS. In addition to a really cool name, this is one damn fine white wine. A blend of Riesling, Gewürztraminer, Pinot Blanc and Pinot Gris, it is both exceptionally versatile and truly delicious. Ripe apple, pear and toasted almond aromas get a lift from a little bit of spice and a lot of minerality. It's as if Alsace landed in Carneros. You will thank us for this introduction!

1WRSI06OW3 $29.95 btl. $26.95 btl./mixed case

'05 ZIND-HUMBRECHT "HERRENWEG DE TURCKHEIM" PINOT GRIS • ALSACE. Olivier Humbrecht is one of the world's leading champions of biodynamic farming, and his wines are incredible lenses through which to view his individual vineyard sites. His family has also been making wine in the region since 1620... he has a bit of history to draw from. This intense, fragrant dry Pinot Gris is pure Alsace – a bone dry white that is so packed with intensity that you'd bet good money from smelling it that it's sweet. Lemon oil, chalk, petrol and a subtle earthiness that could only come from one place. Simply great stuff.

1WZHU05IW3.....$47.95 btl. (Net item – no discounts apply).

RARE WINE & PROVISIONS

BOUNTY HUNTER'S HISTORICAL HEADQUARTERS
975 First Street - Napa, CA 94559

Bounty Hunter Headquarters is located in the Semorile Building, circa 1888, on First and Main in downtown Napa. Our building is “an outstanding example of Victorian commercial architecture and one of the few remaining buildings of its period in Napa”.

Now designated as a historic landmark, it was one of the first commercial commissions for Luther M. Turton, who became Napa’s most prominent architects in the late 19th and 20th centuries. The two story building has a “highly individualistic façade in the commercial Italianate style. Brick pilasters and cast iron columns ornament the ground floor store front. A pair of windows on either side of the door on the second floor are set in a detailed framework of pressed brick, San Jose sandstone and iron.

The façade is virtually unaltered from its date of construction. Bartolomeo Semorile arrived in California from Italy during the Gold Rush. He erected the building as his grocery store (which is now the Bounty Hunter Wine Bar) and family residence upstairs (which is now the Bounty Hunter Office Headquarters). The grocery continued until 1924 when he retired. A generous man, Bartolomeo helped Italian immigrants entering Napa County. Active in real estate, he helped in underwriting the new railroad in Napa in 1888.

Mark Pope, A.K.A. The Bounty Hunter, has taken ownership of the building with a 20 year lease. He has painstakingly refurbished the building inside and out. Many of the original details of the building have been restored including the original wood floors. The hand-hewn mahogany bar and hand-pounded Mexican ceiling tiles add historically correct modern details – right down to the foot rails at the bar which have been made from actual train tracks from the Wine Train – the very same rail road that Bartolomeo Semorile helped to build in 1888.

We look forward to showing you around.
Til then, Cheers.

Mark Pope, AKA “The Bounty Hunter”
